THE WEATHER

Conditions.

Disturbed weather conditions prevail generally throughout the country with marked low pressure over the southwest and extreme central-west and squalls well defined central-west over the middle Mississippi valley. This has resulted in general showers and numerous thunder storms throughout the central valley.

The indications are that unsettled showery weather with frequent thunder storms will prevail Wednesday and Thursday over the districts east of the Mississippi but not reaching New England before Thursday. There will be no decided temperature changes.

The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be moderate west and north-west becoming variable Thursday with fair weather; middle Atlantic moderate north becoming variable on Thursday with fair weather.

Forecast.
Eastern New York and Southern New England: Fair Wednesday; Thursday showers, warmer in interior.

Northern New England: Fair Wednesday; Thursday increasing cloudiness, probably over the districts east of the Atlantic.

Observations in New London.
The following records, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Tuesday:

Funeral of Chauncey C. Geer—Ladies' Aid Meet—Personals.

The funeral of Chauncey Cleveland Geer was held at his home at Prospect street at 2:30 o'clock with a large number of relatives and friends in attendance. Delegation from Sedgwick post, G. A. R. attended. Over the casket was draped the American flag and about 100 flowers were placed on the casket. The services were conducted by Rev. F. W. Coleman. The casket was borne to the cemetery by the deceased in the Civil war and were Orrin M. Pease, John Service, Burke, Philip Spelman, Frank W. Picher and George L. Kies. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery, where a committal service was conducted by Rev. F. W. Coleman. Mr. Coleman, Undertakers Church and Allen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Ladies' Aid Meet With Mrs. John Hill. The Ladies' Aid society of the Federated church met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. John Hill's home at 111 Central avenue. It was the regular monthly meeting of the society at which the president, Mrs. Willis Hill, presided. Reports of the business were transacted. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved. Plans were discussed relative to holding a food sale for the benefit of the society some time in the near future.

Attending Commencement Exercises. Mrs. Andrew Prentice of Central avenue is attending the commencement exercises at Yale college this week while in New Haven. Mrs. Prentice will be the guest of her son, Charles, who graduated from the Sheffield Scientific school this week.

Personals.
Dennis Shea, who has resided on Fifth street for some time past has moved to Fountain street.

Mrs. L. O. Potter of Central avenue spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Verne South at Woodmont-on-the-Sound.

Rev. W. H. Kennedy of St. Mary's church delivered an interesting and instructive address at the graduation exercises of the Slater's Academy in Jewett City.

Lightning Strikes in Two Places—Many Attend Ball Game—Personals and Notes.

The severe electrical storm which passed over here Monday evening did a little damage about the village. The lightning struck at Taft station waiting room and burned out the lights in the building and blackened the ceiling. There were several people in the station at the time the bolt struck, but no one was injured, although they were badly frightened. On Merchants avenue a building occupied by several families and a store was struck but no serious damage other than the ripping off of several clapboards was done.

Attend Ball Game at New London. A large number of baseball fans attended the game at New London on Tuesday afternoon. An auto party in which were D. C. Murphy, William Kendall, N. A. Pomeroy, Oliver Fortland and Harry Pomeroy, also attended the game. Dennis Murphy, the local boy, caught a fine game for Lawrence.

Play at Hospital Saturday. The Taftville baseball club will play at the State hospital this coming Saturday. Taftville has had rather bad luck this season being able to pick out a game that did not rain. Three times they have had to cancel their game with White Rock on account of the weather. In Saturday's game the battery for Taftville will probably be Adams and Casy.

Personals and Notes.
Miss Agnes Dougherty attended the graduation exercises at the Academy of the Holy Family in Baltic Tuesday.

Alfred Kennedy and Walter Thomas were in Brooklyn over the week-end where they attended the Brooklyn-Chicago game.

Miss Bernadette Breslin, a student at the Academy of the Holy Family in Baltic is at her home on Newbury avenue for the summer vacation.

The Taftville canoe club have commenced the building of their boat house on the river. Eddie Wood, George Weller, Jr. and Harry Jervis are doing the work.

A large number attended the graduation exercises at the Academy on Tuesday. Those graduating this year at the Slater's Academy from Taftville are Miss Agnes Graham and Everett Phillips.

SETTLEMENT IN $15,000 SUIT

Case of Martha Lorenz Against the Shore Line Electric Railway Co. Goes Off the Superior Court Docket—Judge Waller Renders Decision in Case of Robbins vs. Kudlik, et al.

The case of Martha Lorenz of New London, against the Shore Line Electric company for $15,000 for personal injuries as a result of a trolley accident was settled on Tuesday without trial. The case was assigned for trial in the superior court in this city on Tuesday, but counsel reached settlement without trial.

It was alleged by the plaintiff that she was thrown while attempting to board a trolley car in New London on July 24th last. She received serious injuries.

The court came in in the afternoon at 2 o'clock the case of Thomas Rowe of New London against Raymond S. Burrows of New London was started.

This is a suit for injuries received as the result of a collision between defendant's automobile and a jitney. Rowe claims he was standing on the sidewalk on Bank street when the defendant's automobile collided with a jitney, ran up on the sidewalk and struck him, the plaintiff, inflicting serious injuries to his back and other parts of his body.

The case of Mary A. Brown vs. John Grout went off the trial list.

Decision in Robbins vs. Kudlik. Judge Charles A. Waller has handed down his decision in the case of Mrs. R. Robbins of Norwich against Daniel Kudlik and others in a suit to recover damages for injuries received as the result of a farm owned by Harriet E. Stapleton, for which Kudlik claimed a commission.

Three hundred dollars was placed in Attorney Robbins' hands for any judgment Kudlik might get against Mrs. Stapleton, and the only interest she had was dependent upon the result of the action Kudlik brought.

Judge Waller ruled that counsel was properly charged as guardian and as trustee for the said Kudlik in accordance with the terms of the agreement as well as during the pending of his suit against Harriet E. Stapleton.

The money was attached by Bidwell, Bishop & Co. the Charles Shepard Co. J. Lawrence Raymond, adm., and Hertz Brothers.

The sum of $25 is awarded for counsel fees and costs of action are to be taxed.

At the semi-annual business meeting held Tuesday evening by the Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church, 35 members were present.

All gathered together and marched to tables prettily decorated with flowers, where a strawberry supper was served by the entertainment committee.

Miss Adella Lindberg and Lillian Cross. The menu consisted of the following:

Salads. Rolls. Ice Cream. Strawberry Shortcake. Coffee.

Following supper, the meeting was called to order by the president, Geo. Amburn, who presiding after some H. Strouse, the pastor, offered prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, preceded the acceptance of the semi-annual reports read by the respective officers.

An excellent report was given by the secretary, Mrs. M. J. Strouse. The report of the society, among other things, accomplished, the establishing of an antislavery fund, and the church doors. The light was a much needed improvement and is greatly appreciated by the church.

The pastor, Rev. George H. Strouse, and Superintendent Stephen H. Peckham, each in a short talk, spoke of what the society should mean to its members and have many helpful suggestions where it may broaden its usefulness and influence among the young people, thus adding much to the spiritual life of the church.

Much enthusiasm was manifested throughout the evening by the members. One of the pleasantest features of its existence and opened the new season with the brightest of prospects.

At the close of the banquet the members enjoyed an hour of pinocle. First prize went to August Hahn, second to Judge H. H. Pettis, third to E. Baker and consolation to Albert J. Bailey.

The scores: August Hahn, 7685; H. Pettis, 7480; E. H. Baker, 7330; Martin Larnen, 7340; John Jordan, 6985; A. J. Bailey, 6940; E. U. Underwood, 1090; Chas. E. Peckham, 6705; N. E. Lewis, 6680; Halliday, 5730; B. C. Smith, Jr., 5195; Alfred J. Bailey, 5160.

After the prizes had been awarded the club adjourned subject to the call of the president, Alexander Jordan. The banquet was to have been held several weeks ago but the members decided to postpone it owing to the illness of the president.
